Q. 3 Translate any ONE of the following paragraphs into Urdu:

(08)

- a. "A pretty sort of doctor you must be!" cried they, "Before you begin your treatment, you are talking of digging the patient's grave! Away with you; we shall have nothing to do with you".
- b. The young man seated on the cement bench was watching with interest the people passing on the pavement before him. Most of them were wearing overcoats which were of every kind from astrakhan to rough military khaki! Such as are found in large bundles at second hand clothes shops.

Q. 4 Read the following paragraph and answer the questions given at the end:

(08)

Then I grasped the child's head with my left hand and tried to get the wooden tongue depressor between her teeth. She fought, with clenched teeth, desperately! But now I also had grown furious -- at a child. I tried to hold myself down but I couldn't. I know how to expose a throat for inspection. And I did my best. When finally I got the wooden spatula behind the last teeth and just the point of it into the mouth cavity, she opened up for an instant but before I could see anything she came down again and gripped the wooden blade between her molars. She reduced it to splinters before I could get it out again.

Questions:

- (i) Why did the doctor become furious?
- (ii) What instrument did the doctor use to open her mouth?
- (iii) Why did she grip the wooden blade between her molars?
- (iv) How did the doctor grip the child's head?
